

WEB PAGE*INDEX

| S # | TOPICS         | T. SIGN |
|------------|-----------------------|----------------|
| 1)         | Reading + Explanation |                |
| 2)         | Title + Webpage       |                |
| 3)         | Questions / Answers   |                |
| 4)         | Fill in the blanks    |                |
| 5)         | True and Falls        |                |
|            |                       |                |

Q: New Terminologies:

|    |                |                                        |
|----|----------------|----------------------------------------|
| 1. | Photosynthesis | Process of Preparing food for plant    |
| 2. | Herbivores     | Plant eating animals                   |
| 3. | Carnivores     | Meat eating animals                    |
| 4. | Omnivores      | Both the plant and meat eating animals |

Q: Questions/Answers:

1. What all living things need?

Ans: All Living things need energy to grow and survive.

2. What does a food chain show?

Ans: A food chain shows transfer of food energy from one living to another.

3. Name and describe the parts of food chain?

Ans:       Sun:       Sun starts a food chain.
             Producers:   All Plants are Producers.
             Consumers:   All animals are consumers or eaters.

4. What are decomposers?

Ans: Those tiny living organisms who decompose or feed off dead organisms are called decomposers.

Q: Fill in the blanks:

1. A Food Chain is a diagram that shows how energy is passed from one to another living thing
2. Bacteria and fungi are decomposers.
3. All living things get energy from food.
4. All plants make their food from sun, they are called Producers.

Q: Fill in the blanks:

1. A food chain shows energy transfer among living things. (True)
2. Plants make their food by the process called photosynthesis. (True)
3. All animals are producers. (False)
4. Sun starts a food chain. It lets green plants make their food (True)